

CHALLENGE 6

YOUR FAVOURITE CRICKET MOMENT!

This week, we challenge you to pick your favourite cricketing moment of all time. This can be from a match that you watched on TV or saw live. It should be from the professional game. You can pick any cricketing moment, past or present. The best picks will be shortlisted by Lord's Taverners. The shortlisted 'Cricketing Moments' will then go to the public vote and the winner will receive a prize!

To strengthen your pick, here are some things you can do:

- What was special about that moment:
- What was the situation of the match?
- Was it an extraordinary showcase of skill, if so how?

Think about why this is your favourite cricketing moment:

- What did it mean to you?
- How did it make you feel?
- Why is this a special moment to you?

The deadline for entrants is Friday 5 June. To enter, please send an email to contact@lordstaverners.org. Mention your favourite cricketing moment and try to answer the questions above. If you can find a YouTube video of your favourite moment, then include a link in your email. Good luck!

'Jos Buttler run out in 2019 CWC World Cup Final'

- This was the first World Cup final I had watched, and I am an England fan
- The match was evenly poised and was a really close game! It went to a super over and New Zealand needed 2 runs from the final ball of the match
- It was great to see how the players coped under pressure and then what it meant to them after the winning moment
